SCOUTING

THE SHOPS with Sally

● The Editor was very polite, but it was easy to see that he was mad clear through.

● "We all realize, Sally," he gritted between his teeth, "that you have a very unhappy home life. But just why do you spread it all over the front page of the shopping news every week? Uncle Hezikiah, Aunt So-and-So, Cousin John—"

● Then he must have seen the tears in our eyes, for he suddenly relented and let us in on the biggest news story of the year.

● Guess What?

● We are going to have $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ $ Dollar Days of our own, right here in Daly City, next Friday and Saturday, August 25, 26.

● The specials are the kind that will stand comparison with any specials anywhere, the Editor says. It's the chance of a lifetime to save money and timed right for the opening of school.

● The wise shopper will buy at home, where she can save time, money and carfare; where merchants take a neighborly interest in her welfare; and P. S. where she doesn't have to fumble for tokens with an armful of bundles. Daly City merchants feature free delivery.

● The Daly City Shopping News is giving away absolutely free, more than ten dollars' worth of merchandising orders to Friday and Saturday Dollar Day shoppers. In other words—YOU, Mrs. Housewife, may be the lucky winner of a free merchandise order, the items of which you may select yourself.

● There will even be a staff photographer on hand to take pictures of the lucky winners!

● And now for a note about this week's specials. First of all, have you seen Page 5 of this issue? If not, read what Mr. Lin-

Sheer Shirtwaist Is High in Favor

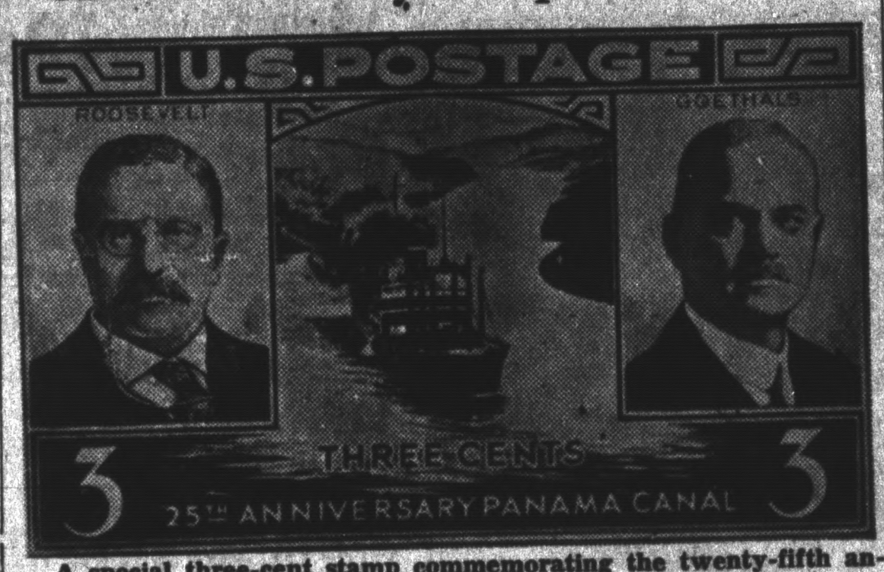
Costume Is Tuned to All Sorts of Occasions.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

The flair for the costume that tops a stunningly styled skirt with the frilly sheer shirtwaist top becomes increasingly significant. You can carry out the idea conservatively or as flamboyantly as you will. The younger girls are looking gypsylike and fascinating in skirts made of gay stripes or plaids or flowery prints that are flared to extreme fullness. With these skirts they wear rapturous sheer white shirtwaists that revel in frills and fine tuckings, and lace trims, and endless other alluring details.

These shirtwaist costumes, however, are tuned to all sorts of occasion, as conservatively as the most discriminating may wish or with a bizarre touch that startles you out of the ordinary pace. For practical wear you'll be wanting a many gored skirt made of white waffle pique with which you will be wearing perhaps a simple shirt blouse made of white washable rayon jersey.

Canal Anniversary Stamp Goes on Sale



A special three-cent stamp commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Panama canal's opening went on sale this week on the U. S. S. Charleston, now stationed in the Canal Zone. The stamp, printed in purple ink, has as its central motif framed portraits of former President Theodore Roosevelt and George W. Goethals, the canal's engineer.

Miss Rose Leads SP Band

Miss Rose, captain of the Daly City Juvenile drill team, acted as majorette Monday for the Southern Pacific band, Post No. 412, American Legion, at the Legionnaires' convention in Oakland.

Translation

Translated from the Spanish, here is what the names of some New Mexico post offices mean: Louse Egg, Fly Trap, Eib Head, Rib, Onion, Chicken and Mouse.

ONE-PIECE MEALS WITH MACARONI
(See Recipe Below)

One-Piece Meals

Lucky is the homemaker who has in her recipe file a series of suggestions for "one-piece meals."

After a long, lazy afternoon at the beach, or perhaps a busy day with sugar 'nd spice, and the preserving kettle, the meal that can be prepared and served all in one course is a life-saver.

And what food can you find that lends itself as aptly to this type of coln missed when he was young.

● Which reminds us—the romantic love of the tropics is brought to the screen of the Daly City theatre tonight in the picture "Only Angels Have Wings."

● Something else that you don't want to miss is the Night Owls' big opening dance this coming Saturday night, at Lovchen Gardens in Colma.

● For dinner-dancing don't forget the Hilltop Lodge. Since they've adopted the new 15c policy, anyone can afford to take a night off occasionally for fun.

● Questions: Do you know that the Beeson Cleaners will make your old rugs look like new, without injury to the colors or nap, and at a very reasonable price? That the Daly City Nursery is the place to buy fine flowers and bedding plants? That the Plymouth Beauty Salon is very obliging about making evening appointments? That Byrne's Radio store has a complete line of phonograph records, including classics and swing?

● We wish we knew: how the Geneva Bakery makes those delectable little white Italian cookies. How the milkman from the Mission Creamery manages to be so quiet when he brings our milk in the early morning. How the General Electric company can put out the marvelous washer down at Charlie's Radio Service now for only 69.95. Who selected all the beautiful materials the Daly City Mattress company uses to re-cover Chesterfield sets, for as low as $17.50.

● Encore: by popular demand, A. M. Harrison this week repeats the generous offer of trade-in allowances on bathroom fixtures. If you were unable to take advantage of their first offer, be sure to see Page 3.

meal as macaroni and its closest of kin? These foods, including spaghetti and noodles, as well as macaroni, are high in food energy and contain some building ods as well. Yet they're light and petizing—the kind of food that's eded to meet the requirements of mmer. Served with a green sal- or a fruit dessert, any of these ne-piece" macaroni dishes make hly satisfactory meals.

Macaroni Creole Loaf.
(Serves 4-5)

2 cups cooked macaroni
1 cup soft bread crumbs
2 eggs
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons green pepper (chopped)
⅝ cup cheese (grated)
1¼ cups tomatoes
¼ cup melted butter
1½ tablespoons prepared mustard
Dash celery salt, onion salt, and white pepper

Mix all ingredients in order listed. our into a greased baking casse- le. Bake 35 minutes in a mod- ate oven (350 degrees). Unmold refully and serve.

Spaghetti Ring With Asparagus and Eggs.
(Serves 6)

1 8-ounce package spaghetti
1 cup cooked ham (ground)
½ clove garlic (chopped)
2 tablespoons pimiento (chopped)
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 eggs (beaten)
¾ cup coffee cream

Filling.

2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1½ cups milk
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 cup cooked asparagus (cut)
2 hard cooked eggs (sliced)

Break spaghetti and cook until tender in 2 quarts boiling water to which 1 tablespoon salt has been added. Drain and add to it the ground ham, garlic, pimiento, salt, pepper, eggs and cream. Pour into buttered ring mold, place in shallow pan of hot water, and bake at moderate temperature (350 degrees) for about one hour.

To make the filling, melt the butter in a saucepan and add flour. Blend thoroughly and then add milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Add seasonings and lightly stir in the asparagus. Fill center of spaghetti mold with the creamed asparagus and garnish with slices of hard cooked eggs.

Baked Macaroni—Creole Style.
(Serves 4-5)

½ package elbow macaroni
2 tablespoons onion (minced)
2 tablespoons butter
1 green pepper (minced)
1 No. 2 can tomatoes
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
½ pound country style sausage
¼ cup soft bread crumbs (buttered)

Cook macaroni in boiling, salted water until tender. Drain. Brown

Insulin Discovery

Insulin was discovered by two Canadian physicians, Drs. Frederick G. Banting and J. J. R. McLeod, but the greater share of the credit has been given to Dr. Banting. At the time the discovery was announced in 1922 Dr. Banting held the office of resident surgeon of the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto. The insulin treatment had been used under the supervision of its discoverers for a while before it was announced, but its general use dates from 1922.

Dwelling Comfort

Considerable work has been done toward the establishment of the correct degree of humidity for dwellings. There is a so-called comfort zone, which has a maximum temperature of 70 degrees Fahrenheit and a minimum humidity of 30 per cent; a minimum temperature of 55 to 60 degrees Fahrenheit, and a maximum humidity of 55 per cent. This is the range which has been established as being most agreeable to people living in temperate climates.

There's Good Fun For Everybody

by Scouting Sally

Well we've seen some fun in our day, but Eddie's Advershow at the Daly City Theatre Saturday nights takes the cake!

If you don't believe me, take last Saturday night, for instance. For a long time nothing has made me bend over and slap my knee so hard as seeing quiet chubby Jimmy Welsh, dignified lieutenant of Fire company No. 5, chasing up and down the theatre isle, while struggling into ladies undies. Jim won the race too, and got a nice prize. Then the mayor's wife nearly got her finger caught in a mouse trap—well not exactly a mouse trap, but one of those nifty new-fangled snapshut hostess tables she won as a prize.

Yes sir, there are feature acts, music, and a lot of good fun at Eddie's show, and what I mean—"he's packing 'em in."

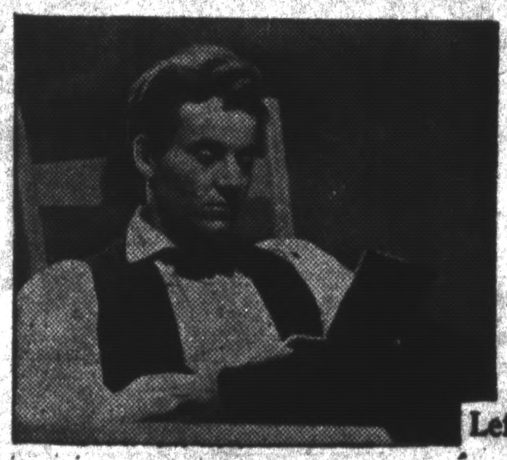
The Screen Reveals Abe Lincoln as a Young Man!

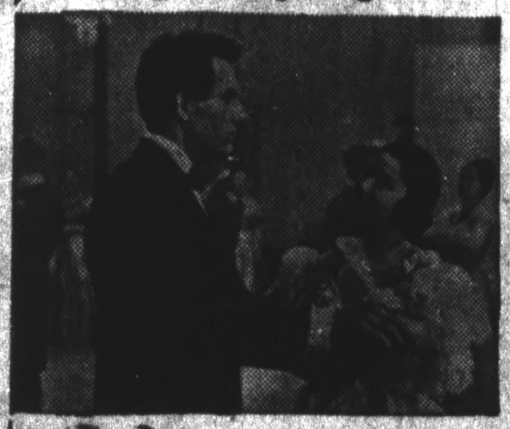


He was a brawny-armed backwoodsman who wrestled with the boys, had an endless fund of funny stories and fell in love. His romantic, eventful youth, a story never before told, is revealed in Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "Young Mr. Lincoln," a Cosmopolitan production for 20th Century-Fox.

Left: Time out from fun for law study.

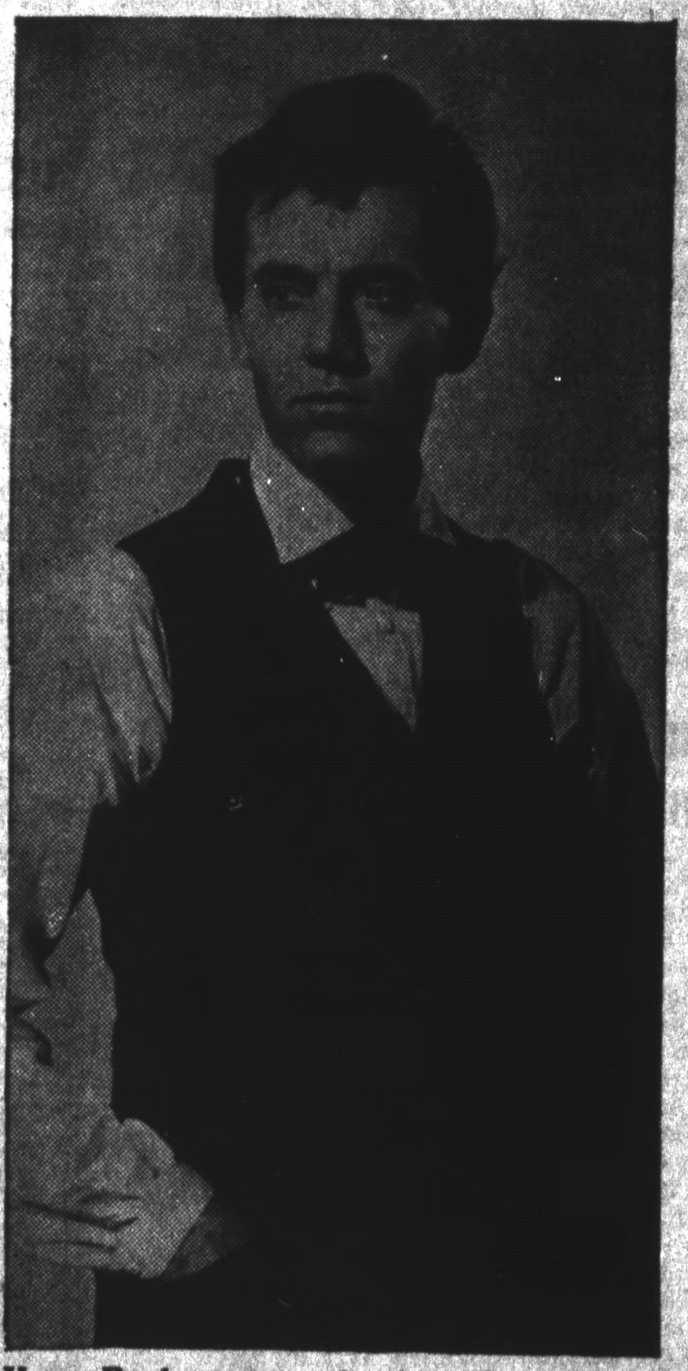
Splitting rails was a strange preparation for legal hair-splitting.

Among the boys young Abe's strength was as famous as his wit.



"You say, Miss Todd, that I can go on and on? With a woman like you I might at that!"

"I can lick any man here hands down!" The young lawyer defies the lynch-crazed mob.



Henry Fonda portrays the title role of "Young Mr. Lincoln", co-featured with Alice Brady, Marjorie Weaver and Arleen Whelan. John Ford directed the film.

"Only Angels Have Wings" Thrilling And Spectacular

A drama whose picturesque setting in the tropical Andes Mountains of South America lends increased credence and vividness to an exciting tale of adventure and romance, Columbia's "Only Angels Have Wings" is now playing at the Daly City theatre. Cary Grant and Jean Arthur are co-starred in this tense, fresh and completely enjoyable narrative of frank human passion told against a background of tropical tempests, snow-capped peaks menacingly hidden by fog and airplane thrills unequalled since the memorable "Ceiling Zero," which, incidentally, was also directed by Howard Hawks, producer and director of the current motion picture spectacle.

Cary Grant and Jean Arthur

Grant and Miss Arthur, two of Hollywood's greatest stars, appear for the first time together in a motion picture. Richard Barthelmess returns to the screen after an over-long absence. Rita Hayworth and Thomas Mitchell are also featured in the cast.

Second Feature

Lionel Barrymore, as the cantankerous but human old doctor, guides Lew Ayres through another tempestuous adventure in "Calling Dr. Kildare," second of the new medical-detective series, now playing at the Daly City theatre.

Ayres, as young Dr. Jimmy Kildare, gets into trouble with the police when, infatuated by pretty Lana Turner, he hides and cares for a wounded murder suspect. So there's nothing to do but find the real murderer to clear the boy. He sets out to do it, solves the riddle, then finds he's lost the girl he did it for. The wily old Dr. Gillespie gets him out of his troubles in a deft dramatic twist.

Costly Imported Art

Paintings and drawings imported to the U. S. between 1930-35 were valued at more than $25,000,000.

plies at real savings. Regular 10c writing tablets are selling for 7c, for example. Edwards also has a complete assortment of greeting cards for 5 and 10c. And don't forget that doctors' prescriptions are given the utmost care and attention there.

● One of the best values we've noticed lately in household equipment is the automatic hot water heater sold by S. N. Pfeifer. The whole thing is operated from a single dial, and the price is surprisingly low.

● Now for some grocery specials. If your budget has rickets, why not try hamburger for a change? It can be prepared in many delicious ways; and costs only 25c for 3 pounds at the Vista Grande meat market. You'll find other prices there correspondingly low and personal attention given your needs.

● The Daly City Cut Rate market has any number of delicious—and different—fruits and vegetables this week. Watermelons are only 1c a pound, and they'll plug them. New artichokes are 1c each, and ripe Bartlett pears selling for 15c a dozen.

● You'll find Robertson's Egg store a pleasant place to stop and trade. You'll like their ranch-fresh eggs, too, and fine quality foods. Bacon is very inexpensive at Robertson's.

● If your husband has a fondness for corned beef, why not pamper him for once? Farmers Meat company has some lovely fresh corned beef this week, 15c a pound, or plate for 7c. One of

Public Invited To Saturday Dance

The Night Owls club of Colma and South San Francisco will hold its big opening dance Saturday evening at Lovchen Gardens, Colma.

Decorations were completed last week. The walls have been finished in amber and the ceiling in blue, with the orchestra stand streamlined in gold. Starting at 9 p. m., the party will feature modern dance music, a good floor and strolling under the stars in the surrounding gardens. Refreshments will be available.

The public is cordially invited. Admission fees are nominal and tickets may be obtained at the door.

The Night Owls hope to give a dance every first and third Saturday of the month hereafter, according to officials.

the onion in the butter; add green pepper and tomatoes. Add sugar and salt, and cook until the green pepper is tender. Make the sausage into small flat cakes. In a buttered casserole, place a layer of macaroni, then a layer of sausage, and another layer of macaroni. Pour the tomato mixture over this. Sprinkle with buttered crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for about 45 minutes.

Macaroni Supreme.

Cook ½ pound macaroni (broken in 2-inch lengths) in boiling salted water until tender; drain. Cut 2 thin slices smoked ham in two crosswise. Arrange strips of macaroni on ham. Put ¼ teaspoon horseradish on each portion and sprinkle with ½ cup grated cheese. Roll and tie in position. Place close together in shallow baking dish. Cover with ½ cup milk and bake in a slow oven (325 degrees) for 25 minutes. Uncover and continue baking until ham is lightly browned. Serves 4.

Stew.
(Serves 5)

½ pound bacon (sliced)
2 onions (medium size)
1 pound round steak (ground)
1 No. 2 can tomatoes
1 8-ounce package spaghetti
1 No. 2 can whole kernel corn
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Cut bacon into small pieces and cook until crisp in a large skillet.

Remove bacon bits, brown the sliced onion in the hot fat, and finally take out the onion slices and use the remaining fat for browning the ground meat, breaking it into small bits as it cooks. Then pour in the tomatoes, and allow the mixture to simmer until it is fairly thick. Next add the spaghetti, which has been broken into 2-inch lengths and cooked until tender in boiling salted water. Then add the can of corn, the browned onions, and crisp bacon bits, and the seasoning. Allow this mixture to simmer slowly for another half hour, covered.

our own favorite stand-bys is beef pot roast at 16c a pound.

● If you haven't stopped by the new Castle Garden grocery yet, why not make it a point to do so? You'll like their friendly service, the attractive variety of foods and their low prices. Solid tomatoes are only 5c for 2 pounds there, and sweet wines 90c a gallon.

● Do you like marshmallows? An entire pound costs only 10c at Milo's. Best-quality mayonnaise may be had for 27c a quart—and for salad to go with it, just glance at Milo's fruit and vegetable combinations on the back cover. Milo's also feature tender T-bone steaks, or fresh Belgian hare, or anything else you want.

● It's a well-known fact that Idaho potatoes are the finest in the world, preferred by discriminating specialists, by foreign royalty and by the great mass of American people. For real Idaho potatoes, go to the Westlake Market, where you will find them selling 10 pounds for only 19c. Westlake also features the finest in other vegetables and fresh fruits. This week they introduce Chase and Sanborn's new vacuum-packed coffee, 2 pounds for 51c.

● Lucca Ravioli carries a fine line of quality meats. Prices are reasonable, too; boiling beef, for instance, is only 3 pounds for 25c. And did you know that Lucca's is having another spectacular soap special this week? See their ad on Page 7. P. S. Now is the time to stock up on canned fruits for winter. See Lucca's special on canned apricots.
